Saloon Description

The interior architecture is completely new, with the exception of the starboard hull which keeps its 'owners suite'...

Galley info

The galley is in the nacelle (in the hull gangway on the 37), which optimises and transforms the space assigned to the port aft cabin, which now has its own heads with shower and WC.

Main Cabin

The 'forward suite' in the rostrum (the cabin area ahead of the mast) with its 'Breton-style bed' is as appealing as ever, continuing the magic formula already applied to the 37.

Head

We find a head equipped with independent shower, toilet and sink. Lot of storage room.

The aft cabin, placed in the starboard and port side, we find a big double bed on high, well isolated from the engine rooms. A sink is placed just at the entrance of the cabin, so we do not need to go to the head for washing hands or face
